Hotbeds: Black-White Love In Novels From The United States, Africa And The Carribean / Pia Thielmann. □
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2004
384p.;
9789990876231
$ 24.00

Interracial Love Relationships Are On The Rise Internationally, Yet They Are Still A Hotly Debated Issue. Interracial Couples Are Confronted With The Lingering Racist Effects Of Slavery And Colonialism On Society's, Their Families And Friends', And Even Their Own Attitudes Toward Black-White Love. Based On The Feminist Theory Of The Black American Cultural Critic, Bell Hooks, And The Nationalist Theory Of The Kenyan Writer, Ngugi Wa Thiong'o, Pia Thielmann Analyzes A Broad Range Of Novels About Black-White Love From The United States, Africa, And The Caribbean. How Do Black And White, Male And Female

Authors Envision The Growing Or Withering Of Black-White Love Under Rather Unsupportive Societal Conditions?

Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2002
207p.;
97899908164x
$ 11.00

In Africa The Spirit Dimension Of Religion Is Perhaps More Obvious Than In The Countries Of The North. This Book Deals With The Spiritual Dimensions In Both Tumbuka Traditional Religion And In The Incoming Tumbuka Christianity. What Was The Meaning Of The Vimbuza Spirit Affliction Cult To The Tumbuka, And How Did The Church Relate To It With Its Own Message Of The Holy Spirit? Is There Any Affinity Or An All Out Clash Of Forces? Is Christianity Able To Give Answers To African Spirituality, Drawing On Its Own Resources Of The Spiritual Life? This Book Tries To Give Answers.

Blantyre Mission And The Making Of Modern Malawi / Andrew C. Ross
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 1997/2000 (Reprinted)
216p.;
978999081602
$ 10.00

Why Were, At Independence, So Many National Leaders Members Of The Ccap? That Is The Question That Spurred This Thorough Examination Of The Blantyre Mission. Written In The 1960s, It Remains Today An Indispensable Work Of Reference For Understanding Both Church And Nation In Malawi.

Church, State And Society In Malawi: The Anglican Case / James Tengatenga
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2006
223p.;
9789990876517
$ 12.00

"If Only The Church Would Keep Out Of Politics", Sighs The Politician. And He Also Says "The Church Is Doing A Great Job In Development" (And "If Only They Would Stick To That"... He Sometimes Thinks). But Without The Church, The State Called Malawi Would Not Be Here In That Form, And Was It Not The Roman Catholic Lenten Pastoral Letter Of 1992, Which Triggered Off The Change Of Democracy? How Come That The Anglican Church At The Very Beginning Involved Itself In "War For The Defence Of The Oppressed", Was Sometimes Seen As The "Church Of The Government", And When The Catholic Bishops Had Shown The Way, Helped To Dismantle Dictatorship? James Tengatenga, As A Serving Bishop, Tells It All (Or At Least, Much Of It), As A Insider Of The System, And A Critical One For That.

Memorial History Of Mulanje Mission, Church Of Central Africa Presbyterian In Malawi / Armstrong Elliot Khoza

A Woman's Place Is In The Church! Dr. Isabel Apawo Phiri Looks At Women' Religious Experience In Central Malawi. From Spirit Mediumships To The Current Chigwirizano Women's Organizations This Book Encompasses The Struggle Of Chewa Women For Recognition Of Their Own Personal Relationship To God.

Women Of Bible And Culture: Baptist Convention Women In Southern Malawi / Rachel Nyagondwe Fiedler
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2005
232p.;
9789990876029
$ 10.84

We Have All Heard Much – And Probably Too Much – About The Oppression Of Women. Oppressed As They May Be, They Are Carving Out Their Space. This Book Argues That Being Baptist Gives Women Increased Chances To Define The Space They Live In, Since Baptist Polity And Doctrine With Its Congregational Independence And Limited Centralized Organization Creates Room For Local Innovation. The First Chapters Concentrate On The History Of Baptist Women In Southern Malawi, Whole The Last Chapter Shows How They Deal With Marriage. Baptist Women Love The Bible, They Are Daughters Of Their Cultures, Too And They Use Both To Define Their Space.

The Church History Of Providence Industrial Mission / Patrick Makondesa
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2006
194p.;
9789990876813
$ 12.50

For A Long Time The History Of John Chilembwe And The Providence Industrial Mission Has Been Very Much Associated With Political History Due To The Uprising Of 1915. But For Fourteen Years Chilembwe Had Been A Missionary And A Pastor, As Much As His Successor Dr. Daniel Malekebu Who Revived The Mission After It Was Destroyed And Closed By The Colonial Government I 1915. The Author Makes The Point That The Digging Out Of The Historical Reality On The Religious Activities Of The Providence Industrial Mission Paves The Way To A Better Understanding Of Its History.

Pentecostalism In Malawi: A History Of The Apostolic Faith Mission In Malawi / Ulf Strohhahn
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2005
194p.;
9789990876258
$ 15.00

While Starting Late And Small In The 1930s, The Pentecostal Denominations Now Form A Major Component Of The Christian Spectrum In Malawi. In This Framework, Ulf Strohhahn Traces The History Of The Apostolic Faith Mission, One Of The Earliest Pentecostal Churches In Malawi, From Its Machona (Migrant Labour) Beginnings Through The Period Of The Missionaries To The Development Of A Church Spread Over All Of Malawi.

Jesus Christ Is King Of God's Church. However, Who Governs The Church Under Him? How Is The Church To Be Ruled? How Do These Questions Relate To The Word Of God? The Present Book Does Not Offer Final Answers To These Questions, But Tries To Throw Light On The Historical Context. The Book Has Resulted From A Research Of The Beginning Of The History Of Presbyterian Church-Rule. It Focuses On The Elizabethan Era Of The English Church, When Presbyterianism Emerged As A Reaction Against Autocratic One-Man-Rule On The One Hand, And Against 'Radical' Conceptions Of Rule-By-Many On The Other Hand. Instead Of These Two Extremes, Presbyterians Liked The Idea Of Church-Rule By Limited Groups Of Office-Bearers. Their Adage Was: 'A Few Of The Best Rule The Rest'.

A Conflict On Authority In The Early African Church: Augustine Of Hippo And The Donatists / Steven Paas.

The Ancient Church Of North Africa Still Captures The Imagination Of Many Modern People. We Also Wonder About Its Rapid Original Growth. We Also Wonder About The Internal Quarrels And Schisms That Contributed To Its Almost Complete Eradication. For More Than A Hundred Years The North African Church Was Divided By The Donatist Question. The Bone Of Contention Was The Issue Of Authority And Power Of The Office-Bearers. Do Church Leaders Derive Their Authority From Their Own Characteristics Or Moral Qualities? Does The Church Depend On The Holiness Of Its Office-Bearers? The Donatists Thought So. And So Do Their Followers Of Today, Even In Africa. In This Study The Donatists' Opinions Are Compared To Views Of Some Early African Church Fathers, Especially Augustine.

A Conflict On The Church And The Sacrament: How Rome And The Reformation Differed At Regensburg In 1541 / Steven Paas
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2005
42p.;
9789990876606
$ 3.34

According To Popular Thought, It Was The Doctrine Of Justification The Divided Rome And The Reformation In The 16th Century. However, In A Wider Theological Concept The Real Breaking Point Was Not The Doctrine Of Justification, But The Issue Of Church And Sacraments. The Author Drew This Conclusion From His Study Of The Last Dramatic Meeting Between Representatives Of Rome And The Reformation In The German City Of Regensburg In The Year 1541. The Issue Of Church And Sacraments Has Remained Important, Also In The African Context. Theology In African Perspective Needs An Ecclesiology Which Rests In Scripture And Which Therefore Is Significant To The Specific Features Of African Culture. May This Representation Of The Thoughts Developed By The Participants Of The Regensburg Disputation In 1541, Be Helpful In Today's Discussion.

Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2006
264p.;
Isbn 9789990876096
$ 10.00

The Uniqueness Of Fulfilment Quotations In The Gospel Of Matthew Has For A Long Time Attracted Scholarly Attention. Earlier Works Mainly Focused On The Literary Features Of This Phenomenon. The Present Study Investigates These Special Quotations, In Light Of Their Old And New Testament Contexts, To See How They Contribute To An Understanding Of The Evangelist's Theology. In The Process The Problem Of Their Origin And Character Is Addressed. The Results Attained Are Then Related To Wider Issues In Matthean Scholarship And The Synoptic Problem In General. The Study Establishes That The Evangelist Is Responsible For The Formulation Of These Quotations And That He Uses Them Theologically To Explain The Person And Mission Of Jesus As The Messiah According To The Scriptures.

Consensus:Combating Gender Based Violence Through Islam, Tradition And Law /
Marion Baumgart Dos Santos
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2005
114p.;

$ 10.00

Malawi Law, Islam And Tradition Agree On A Common Way Forward Regarding Gender Based Violence Issues. At First Sight This Seems Strange As Many People Attribute To Traditional Beliefs The Main Responsibility For Many Injustices And Even Crimes Committed Mainly Against Women, But Also Against Children And Sometimes Men. Islam Too Is Often Judged Falsely As Contrary To Human Rights, People See Only Veiled Women And Don't Think Further.

In The Beginning God Created Them Equal / Janet Y. Kholowa, Klaus Fiedler
Zomba, Malawi : Kachere Series, 2000
27p.;
9789990816225
$ 5.00

Recently In Malawi, There Has Been Much Discussion Concerning The Equality Of Men And Women. This Little Book Explains Carefully The Relationship Of Men And Women In The First Three Chapters Of The Bible, And Comes To A Conclusion Quite Different From What Many People Think: In The Beginning God Created Them Equal.
