Learning / Work: Turning work and lifelong learning inside out / Linda Cooper, Shirley Walters (eds)

Cape Town, South Africa : HSRC Press, 2009

384p.;

ISBN 9780796922830

$ 40.00

In this book, 34 leading scholars from 10 countries challenge established understandings of lifelong learning and work, with several arguing that 'work' and 'lifelong learning' need to be 'turned inside out' through a rigorous critique of underlying social relations and practices so that we understand the power relations that shape learning/work possibilities. In various ways, all of the 25 chapters that make up this volume are infused with imaginings of alternative futures which prioritise social justice and sustainability for the majority in the world.

Wild Honey / Bookey Peek

Johannesburg, South Africa : The Penguin Group (SA), 2009

ISBN 9780143025856

$ 24.95

Following on from the highly acclaimed All the Way Home, here is a brand new volume of unforgettable adventures from Richard and Bookey Peek's wildlife sanctuary among Zimbabwe's ancient Matobo Hills. Packed with anecdote and adventure, Wild Honey leads us back to the Stone Hills sanctuary, where comedy, tragedy and the extraordinary antics of the most misunderstood animal in the world make every day unforgettable. But how much longer can the Peeks protect their reserve? As thousands of farms all over Zimbabwe are invaded, often violently, under the government's disastrous land policy, Stone Hills has become an island rocked by the turbulence that surrounds it. How much longer can they hold on?

Mourning becomes: Post/memory, commemoration and the concentration camps of the South African war / Liz Stanley

Johannesburg, South Africa : WITS University Press, 2008

328p.; 215 x 155 mm.

ISBN 9781868144754

$ 36.75

This work challenges many of the accepted facts about the concentration camps run by the British during the South African War. The author demonstrates that much of what we have traditionally understood about these camps originates from the testimony which was solicited, selected and published by key women activists within Boer proto-nationalist circles. Using detailed archival evidence, Stanley shows that much of the history of the camps results from deliberate imposition of 'post/memory' – a process by which what was 'remembered' was shaped and reshaped to support the development of a racialised nationalist framework.

Law

Herbstein and Van Winsen: The Civil Practice of the High Courts & Supreme Court of Appeal of South Africa / A C Cilliers, C Loots and H C Nel

5th Ed.

Cape Town, South Africa : JUTA, 2009

ISBN 9780702179334

Herbstein & Van Winsen is a work of key importance to practitioners in the high courts of South Africa, as well as to scholars interested in civil procedure.

The fifth edition has been comprehensively revised to incorporate twelve years of new legislation and case law. It covers legislation brought into operation and judgments handed down since publication of the previous edition in 1997, most notably those flowing from the 1996 Constitution.

The book offers a comprehensive discussion and analysis of civil proceedings in the high courts of South Africa, arranged by topic, from jurisdiction to appeal and review.

224p.; 280 x 240 mm.
ISBN 9781919930744
$ 50.00

This book is about how a long line of gifted artists have used their drawings to condemn corruption and expose wrongdoing, to celebrate change and make new ideas easier to swallow, and, most important, to help us laugh at ourselves. But it is less a history than an attempt to get under the skin of South African cartooning - to find out what makes cartoons so funny and what kinds of strategies are used by cartoonists to tickle the nation's funnybone.

Popular Northern Sotho Dictionary / DJ Prinsloo
Rev. Ed.
Cape Town, South Africa : Pharos Books, 2008
ISBN 9781868900794
$ 14.25

An extensively revised and completely reset new edition of one of the most successful African language dictionaries ever published in South Africa. Originally compiled by the late Dr T. J. Kriel, a highly respected educationist and authority on the Northern Sotho (Sepedi) language, this book has been a steady seller since first published in 1971. The main aims of the revision were to make the dictionary even more user friendly than before and to bring it thoroughly up to date. Almost 3 000 new words have been added, and spelling – both in English and Northern Sotho – has been brought in line with contemporary usage. No knowledge of grammatical rules is presupposed and the user can look up all words directly.

ISBN 9781770097469
$ 35.00

Mounting Queen Victoria is an indispensable guide to the politics of culture and identity in the South African public sphere. "By looking through the prism of South African cultural policy at a moment of uncertainty and transformation, Dubin is able to reveal the tensions that often pass unnoticed in more stable moments. This is an engaging, witty, and provocative demonstration of how museums matter in shaping social life. It is a must read for anyone interested in cultural policy, in southern Africa, and in the linkage of art and history."
