Business

A study of important factors in brand extension / Woo-Sung Kim
Seoul : KStudy, 2007
226p,; 23cm
ISBN-13: 9788953478213
$ 25.00

A powerful brand frequently provides the source of a company's wealth for many generations. The best brands improve with age, developing clearly defined personalities, as well as the affection and loyalty of the public. The best become parents to sub-brands and brand extensions, which give the owner a chance to exploit their values and names in new areas.

Life on the Edge of the DMZ / Si-woo Lee ; TRANSLATED by Myung-Hee Kim
UK : Global Oriental, 2008
224p.
9781905246663
US$ 110.00

Supported by 150 colour photographs, the book by one of Korea's renowned photographers who is also a well-known peace activist, takes the reader from Chulwon in the east to Kosung in the west, interweaving profoundly felt philosophical reflections on a wide variety of political, social and other issues, with detailed observations about the places he visits, including their myths and legends. The sense of yearning for the reunification of his divided country pervades the text. Life on the Edge of the DMZ provides the Western reader with a rare and dynamic connection to an often forgotten aspect of life, albeit 'behind the scenes', in contemporary Korea, and will have wide relevance at many levels in the study of modern Korea.

Korea: The Past and the Present
Selected Papers from the British Association for Korean Studies BAKS Papers series, 1991-2004. In two volumes / J.E. Hoare and Susan Pares
UK : Global Oriental, 2008
576p. [ 2v.]
1-901903-54-0
US$ 190.00

Established in 1982, the British Association for Korean Studies has published nine sets of Papers in the period 1991-2004 - the outcome of conferences, study days and workshops. The themes of Korea past and Korea present were selected to give the editors and BAKS council the widest choice of options in terms of scholarship, subject-matter and interest. Among the Papers included are:

James Huntley Grayson: 'Reverse syncretism and the sacred area of Muak-tong: the accommodation of Korean folk religion to the religious forms of Buddhism' (Vol. 3, 1992)

J.E.Hoare: 'The British community in Korea: the colonial period 1910-1942' (Vol.7, 2000)

Keith Howard: 'Why should Korean shamans be women?' (Vol.1, 1991)

Yeonok Jang: 'Reappraisal of the origins of p'ansori' (Vol.7, 2000)

Ian Nish: 'John McLeavy Brown in Korea' (Vol.2, 1992)

Henrik Sorensen: "'Protecting the nation": Korean Buddhism under the rule of Park Hung Hee, 1961-79' (Vol.9, 2004)

Jaehoon Yeon: 'How different is Pyongyang speech from Seoul speech?' (Vol.7, 2000)

Performing Arts

Korean Mask Dance Dramas: Their History and Structural Principles / Jeon Kyung-Wook; Translated by Eur Do-Seon
Korea: Youlhwadang Publisher, 2005
237p,; 23cm
ISBN-13: 9788930101790
ISBN-10: 8930101798
$ 49.50

Korean scholars believe that the history of Korean mask dance dramas dates back to the Neolithic era around 5000 B.C. This belief gains support from an ancient shell mask found in Busan, the southern city in South Korea. Mask performances have served as a central part in Korean's lives since that time. However, for several decades, there have been different theories as regarding the origins of Bonsandae-nori, which is considered as the arche-type of Korean mask dance dramas. Their History and Structural Principles by Jeon Kyung-wook traces the origins through a comprehensive research using source materials. Thus Jeon offers a detailed and thorough explanation of the origins and development of Bonsandae-nori. In 2004 this work has been selected by scholars and critics as the 21st century textbook in the field of Korean Mask Dance Dramas.
