Architecture

Kotagede : Life between Walls / Revianto Budi Santosa (Text) ; Photography Bambang Tri Atmojo
Jakarta : Penerbit PT Gramedia Pustaka Utama, 2007
162p.;
Includes References
9792225471
9789792225471
$ 59.50

Being one of the oldest surviving Javanese towns, Kotagede embodies rich stories along its life. There is no easy word to describe this highly complex town. Rather than reconstructing history, describing architecture or interpreting culture, this book explores, through pictures and words, some critical junctions between these three nuclei as they are inscribed in space, especially those contained and intertwined between the walls of this town – its amazing and amusing urban settlement.

'Simplicity is the Shortest Path to Beauty'

$ 75.00

This book presents an exhaustive Survey of Ghijsels' work. The fact that almost all his personal archives have survived makes it possible to illustrate his work from the first sketches to the finished buildings by means of some 185 original drawings, blueprints and rare photographs.

Furthermore, this book sketches a precise picture of Ghijsels the man, the conditions under which he lived and worked, and the prevailing perceptions in the Dutch East Indies at that time.

7th Revised and Enlarged Edition

384p. Col. Ills.; 35cm.

Includes Index

$ 90.00

Jakarta, once the 'Queen City of the East', changes very fast. More and more building and objects of its past disappear in our time. But there is still much more to be seen than most people, even long time residents, are aware of. This book leads the reader to what still remains of this colourful past in present-day Jakarta, which today as the Capital of Modern Indonesia again occupies a central position

Bali, Indonesia : Pustaka Larasan, 2007

267p.

Includes Bibliography and Index

9789793790183

$ 22.00

This book investigates some cardinal questions about the construction of nation, history and identity-questions which are relevant not only when broad cultural issues like colonial situations and colonial semiosis are being considered but also when more specific issues like race, gender and class are being taken into account. Razif Bahari provides a study of the ways in which Indonesia's most well-known novelist, Pramoedya Ananta Toer, wrestles with these issues in his writings.
