Literature

Saigon Gold / Hugh Scott

Hanoi: The Gioi, 2009

2nd Edition

318p,; 23cm

$ 20.00

In Saigon Gold, Robert Anderson returns to contemporary Vietnam seeking atonement for civilian casualties during the American War. But soon after checking into the luxurious Caravelle Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City, he is thrust into a dangerous scheme to help a wartime friend recover a gold fortune missing since April 1975.

Anderson meets alluring Jenny Ngo, and the stakes quickly escalate. Unaware they are being watched, Anderson and Jenny frantically race the length of scenic Vietnam in a desperate effort to decipher the deadly secret of a wartime ambush while staying one step ahead of pursuers and a mysterious killer.

Powerful forces inexorably converge on collision courses. For Anderson and Jenny, they face obstacles at every turn while they confront their own emotional scars.

Separating fact and fiction is a challenge in Saigon Gold's volatile mix of international intrigue, lethal double cross, and haunted memories.
