Trends in Firearm Injuries and Deaths in Sri Lanka / Prof. Ravindra Fernando
Sri Lanka: Medical Defence Organisation (Private) Limited, 2010
85p. ; 21cm.
ISBN-13: 9789550417001
$ 12.00

Over a thousand people die every day by firearm injuries, and three times as many are severely injured. If the death, injury and disability resulting from small arms were categorized as a disease, states and their health services would view it as an epidemic.

Quezon City: VSO Bahaginan, 2010
135p. ; 25cm.
ISBN-13: 9789719464518 (HB)
$ 60.00

Volunteering provides a uniquely effective means for people to take part in the work of global development in such a personal, tangible way that can change the volunteer as much as the beneficiary community he works in. It provides the opportunity for people of different backgrounds to come together, to contribute to positive and lasting change, to learn and grow even as they share their time and their skills. This is the work that VSO Philippines has done over 40 years.

God Loves Bakla: My Life in the Closet / Raymond Alikpala
Quezon City: Central Book Supply Inc., 2010
First published in 2009 by Raymond Alikpala, Phnom Penh, Cambodia
259p. ; 23cm.
ISBN-13: 9789710111183
$ 18.95

God Loves Bakla courageously reveals the hidden struggles of a young closeted Filipino gay man who despaired why god had given him such a heavy cross to bear. After three decades of hiding his true self from the world, in an odyssey of self-discovery that passes through Singapore, Phnom Penh, Bangkok, and the priesthood, he finally realizes that God wants him to have to the full, and that this actually means coming out ...

1. Adoptive parents – Singapore – Anecdotes
2. Adoption – Singapore – Anecdotes

$ 15.00

“Our Very Own” is an inspiring collection of true stories. Honest, heartfelt and reflective, these stories give readers poignant glimpses of the raw emotions which the adoptive parents go through – unbearable pain, fears, anxieties, feelings of longing and despair – while celebrating their journey of unconditional love, courage, fulfilled dreams, hope and self-discovery. The book also addresses practical adoption issues like making a decision on adoption, the adoption process, and ways to care for adopted children. A first-of-its-kind in Singapore, “Our Very Own” is a vital resource book for adoptive parents and for service providers working in the area of adoption.

DIS(CLOSURE) / G. L. Eduardo

Singapore: No Roots Ltd. Pte., 2010

iii. 293p. ; 20cm.

ISBN-13: 9789810865757

$ 18.00

DIS(CLOSURE) tells a real story of a young gay man arriving in Singapore in search of a better life. In a society where everything is restricted and organized, he found himself entangled with strangers, stalkers, sex and superstition. He lost the ability to trust; he began to develop deep misgivings about the people around him. He was being watched everywhere he went – he was the target of endless surveillance; more metaphorically, he lived in a state of surveillance ...
