Patriots on the Street / Rex C. Drilon II with Adelle Chua
Philippines : (s.n.), 2010
143p. ; 22cm.
$ 15.00

Patriots on the Street is a modern day parable, a simple story with a lesson for all Filipinos. After a successful 25-year career in Manila, Jonas Tunay, a middle-aged businessman and former class valedictorian, is invited to return to his rural province and address the next generation of graduates at his former high school. As he prepares his speech he is forced to confront his regrets in life, his personal demons and the corruption all around him in Philippine society.

Young, beautiful and wealthy, widow Charlotte Macleod leaves Batavia in the 1850s and returns to Singapore for the English education of her two young sons. She is determined not to be drawn back into a secret affair with Zhen, the married Chinese merchant, triad-member and man she loves who is, unbeknownst to him, the father of her elder son, Alex. Charlotte is convinced she can find happiness in a respectable marriage with the attractive but reticent Captain Maitland. But when murder and death strike,

Singapore erupts in the violence of triad wars and Zhen's growing affection for Alex gives cause for alarm, she must make some hard decisions, for her children and herself.
